Biographical note

Virgil Seth Lagomarcino was born to John and Cora Scott Lagomarcino on March 23, 1921, in Plainfield, Iowa. He received his B.A. (1943) in political science from Coe College, M.S. (1948) in education administration from Drake University, and Ph.D. (1955) in education from Iowa State College (University).

Lagomarcino began his career as a teacher (1943-1945) as the instructor of economics and government at the high school in Vinton, Iowa. He became the Superintendent (1945-1949) of the Keystone (Iowa) Consolidated Schools and Superintendent (1949-1951) of Anamosa (Iowa) Public Schools. Later, he was a Regional Consultant (1951-1953) for the Iowa Department of Public Instruction. Lagomarcino worked as a Research Assistant (1953-1954) in the Department of Vocational Education at Iowa State University. He returned to the Iowa Department of Public Instruction (1954-1955) as the Director of Curriculum and Supervision and Director of Public Junior Colleges. He joined the faculty at Iowa State as an Assistant Professor (1955-1957) in the Department of Vocational Education and was promoted to Associate Professor (1957-1959) and Professor (1959-1990). Lagomarcino was named Director (1961-1968) of Teacher Education at Iowa State University; he later became the first Dean (1968-1990) of the College of Education (the College of Human Sciences as of 2005). Upon his retirement in 1990, he was made Professor Emeritus.

Dr. Lagomarcino married Neva Dorothy Baird and they have three children, Mary, Mark, and Martha. He passed away July 21, 2009.

Collection description

The collection (1920-2008, n.d.) contains biographical information, correspondence, reports, meeting minutes, printed materials, and photographs. The collection includes subject files relating to education in Iowa including school consolidation and post high school education. There are also materials related to Lagomarcino's work with the Iowa Department of Public Instruction including reports (1955) documenting education in every county in Iowa. The collection contains documentation regarding his work with State of Iowa and Iowa State University committees and taskforces. In addition, the papers include records of the College of Education from Lagomarcino's tenure as Dean of the College. These records consist of materials from the formation of the College of Education in 1968, accreditation information, strategic plans, correspondence, committee information, and reports. There are papers relating to Lagomarcino's efforts to secure funding for the remodeling of the Veterinary Quadrangle (Lagomarcino Hall) for the College Education. The materials include Lagomarcino's presentations to the Board of Regents, correspondence, and numerous photographs and news clippings of the renovation and dedication of Lagomarcino Hall.

There is also an oral history interview with Dr. Lagomarcino available in the Iowa State University Sesquicentennial Oral History Collection (RS 0/11/7).

Series 4 Iowa Department of Public Instruction County Reports 1955, n.d.

extent: 2.1 linear feet (5 document boxes)

description: Before coming to Iowa State, Dean Lagomarcino served with the Iowa Department of Public Instruction (DPI). The reports in this series come from his position as one of DPI's representatives to the Governor's County Conferences on Education (1955). These reports were part of a larger national county conferencing effort and are alphabetically arranged according to Iowa's counties. There is also a folder containing one chapter from a report about the historical development of the DPI.
